Testimonials and Success Stories

Monica Angeli

Leader, Sales Cyprus & Malta Grohe

SHARE Architects offers a great opportunity to connect with global architectural behavior and explore new ways of living. The forum in Cyprus brings together renowned architects, showcasing new technologies, designs, future homes, and best practices. It exposes participants to diverse perspectives, fostering creativity and innovation. The event highlights the fusion of traditional and contemporary architectural styles in Cyprus, offering valuable insights. SHARE Architects is a platform to exchange ideas, learn about current trends, and understand how architecture shapes communities.

With its focus on innovation and collaboration, it serves as a catalyst for the advancement of the architectural field.

Brilliant event. Fantastic staff and an amazing opportunity to reach new and existing partners.

Numerous interesting presentation about outstanding architect offices, companies and projects. We look forward to the next Share Architect event.

Testimonials and Success Stories

Stefan Simion

Director Presales si Consultanta, Alukönigstahl

We participate every year in SHARE Architects Events and we appreciate these opportunities to meet with personalities of the architecture scene in Romania and beyond. For Alukönigstahl, as a supplier of architectural systems and related services, these events are a good opportunity for communication and launch of our news.

Albert Valteri

CEO Everest

At Everest, we're sincerely grateful to SHARE Architects for a transformative collaboration in their events. The synergy and innovation showcased have left an indelible mark on our architectural pursuits.

SHARE Architects' commitment to excellence and their curated events have provided us with unique insights, connecting us with global leaders and shaping the future of our industry. The fusion of tradition and innovation has been both inspiring and impactful.

Thank you, SHARE Architects, for being exceptional collaborators. Looking forward to continued excellence together.

HANS JANSEN

Research and Development Leader

It was a honour and the pleasure was all mine.

Thanks for organising a perfect event. Hope to have inspired to work towards a sustainable and circular future.

SHARE International Architecture Awards

Central and Southeastern Europe is rich in architectural talent, and at SHARE Architects, our mission is to bring this talent to the international stage.

To achieve this, we regularly organize events across the region, including the prestigious SHARE Architecture Awards. This event celebrates the exceptional creativity and innovation of architects from the region, offering them a platform to gain the global recognition they truly deserve.

Culture initiatives

SHARE Architects is often called upon to curate programmes and assemble expert juries for architectural conferences and competitions. The SHARE Architects Society serves as the primary source for nominating distinguished professionals to be considered for these roles.

SHARE Architects has provided curatorial services for esteemed institutions such as the Order of Architects of Romania (Iasi Branch), the Association of Architects of Kosovo, the Chamber of Architects of Bulgaria, and the Chamber of Architects of Malta.

Education initiatives

Beyond its professional events, SHARE Architects develops practical continuous training programs for architects and engineers.

These include summer schools and the comprehensive program for architectural excellence, Voronet Architecture Park.
